The Australasian Welding Journal has a circulation of 3,000 and is the official Journal of the Welding Technology Institute of Australia (WTIA). It disseminates information about welding and joining, welded structures, techniques, processes and equipment for the welding and related industries, as well as discussing educational, quality assurance, health and safety, Standards and other issues. The Journal carries a 16 page Welding Research Supplement with technical articles refereed by an independent Review Panel. The Journal officially promotes the WTIA OzWeld School of Welding Technology, SMART Industry Sectoral Groups and the OzWeld Technology Support Centres Network, as well as the full range of activities of the Institute.
